25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Week’s Reflection

We heard the Lord speak very clearly through the prophet Amos in today’s first reading: God cares for the needy and the poor. He will not forget any injustices we may do to them. Each person is God’s child; he asks to look at each person as a brother or sister. That is how he wants us to live together. We heard St. Paul urge us to pray for civil authorities. We are to pray that they will be good leaders, concerned for the good of each person. This helps us to live together peacefully and productively. Leaders are to promote the common good, respecting the rights of all, especially the less influential, and encouraging everyone to care for one another. Our prayers are very needed today. You and I know just how enterprising the worldly can be in protecting themselves and their fortunes. Jesus is encouraging us to be just as enterprising about living by Gospel values in our daily lives. It’s so easy to buy into the greed we see all around us. Jesus warns us: you can’t serve two masters. This weekend has offered us an opportunity to reflect on gospel values in married life and in our community living. It is our hope and prayer that you will choose to listen for the voice of God in each other and in the Church and choose to serve our God who is loving and compassionate to all of us. If each of us will take the time to listen in prayer each day, we will have the strength and courage we will need to be enterprising in gospel ways – ways that will reflect the love and compassion of God to each of our brothers and sisters.

25.º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Reflexión de esta semana

En la primera lectura de hoy, escuchamos al Señor hablar con mucha claridad a través del profeta Amós: Dios cuida de los necesitados y los pobres. No olvidará ninguna injusticia que les hagamos. Cada persona es hijo de Dios; Él nos pide que la veamos como un hermano o hermana. Así es como quiere que vivamos juntos. Escuchamos a San Pablo instarnos a orar por las autoridades civiles. Debemos orar para que sean buenos líderes, preocupados por el bien de cada persona. Esto nos ayuda a vivir juntos de forma pacífica y productiva. Los líderes deben promover el bien común, respetando los derechos de todos, especialmente de los menos influyentes, y animando a todos a cuidarse unos a otros. Nuestras oraciones son muy necesarias hoy. Ustedes y yo sabemos lo emprendedores que pueden ser las personas del mundo para protegerse a sí mismas y a sus bienes. Jesús nos anima a ser igual de emprendedores al vivir según los valores del Evangelio en nuestra vida diaria. Es muy fácil dejarse llevar por la avaricia que vemos a nuestro alrededor. Jesús nos advierte: no se puede servir a dos señores. Este fin de semana nos ha brindado la oportunidad de reflexionar sobre los valores del Evangelio en la vida matrimonial y en nuestra vida comunitaria. Esperamos y oramos para que elijan escuchar la voz de Dios en cada uno de ustedes y en la Iglesia, y que elijan servir a nuestro Dios, que es amoroso y compasivo con todos nosotros. Si cada uno de nosotros se toma el tiempo para escuchar en oración cada día, tendremos la fuerza y el coraje necesarios para ser emprendedores en las formas del Evangelio, formas que reflejen el amor y la compasión de Dios a cada uno de nuestros hermanos y hermanas.
