30° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Reflexión de esta semana

La parábola del Evangelio de hoy nos recuerda que somos justificados solo por la gracia de Dios. El don de la gracia divina solo puede arraigarse en nosotros cuando tenemos la humildad de reconocer nuestra necesidad a causa de nuestros pecados.

El fariseo es una persona muy buena. Ha obedecido todas las leyes de Dios. Sus esfuerzos incluso han ido más allá de la ley; ayuna dos veces por semana y paga el diezmo de todos sus ingresos. Hay mucho en él que podríamos admirar. Pero Jesús quiere que nos centremos en su actitud. El hombre se ve a sí mismo como superior al resto de la gente. Está orgulloso de su bondad.

El recaudador de impuestos se acerca a Dios a distancia. Es muy consciente de su pecado, de su necesidad de la misericordia divina. Se nos dice que su humilde oración atraviesa las nubes y llega al corazón de Dios. Dios no tarda en responder. El recaudador de impuestos regresó a casa justificado, en paz con Dios, que lee el corazón.

La honestidad y la humildad son fundamentos fundamentales para desarrollar una relación más profunda con Dios. No importa cuán buenos nos esforcemos por ser en nuestra vida diaria, nuestra salvación eterna siempre es un regalo de la gracia salvadora y la misericordia de Dios. Cuando se trata de agradar a Dios, debemos aprender a nunca ser autosuficientes. No podemos ganarnos la salvación por mucho bien que hagamos. Solo podemos aceptar la gracia salvadora con gran humildad y responder con gratitud haciendo el bien que podemos hacer cada día.

Reconozcamos voluntariamente nuestra necesidad de la misericordia de Dios cada día. Podemos estar seguros de que Dios escuchará nuestra humilde oración. Nuestro Dios misericordioso siempre nos levantará y nos enviará a casa justificados.

Christmas Gifts

The season of Advent is only a few short weeks away. Please consider visiting our gift shop as you begin your holiday shopping. We have a variety of items in stock; however, if you would like something specific, we can order almost anything. The gift shop is open every Sunday after the 7:20 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Masses, or you can also call the office to make an appointment.

Regalos de Navidad

El Adviento está a solo unas semanas. Considere visitar nuestra tienda de regalos al comenzar sus compras navideñas. Tenemos una variedad de artículos en existencia; sin embargo, si desea algo específico, podemos encargar casi cualquier cosa. La tienda de regalos abre todos los domingos después de las Misas de las 7:20 am y 10:30 am o también puede llamar a la oficina para programar una cita.

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Week’s Reflection

Today’s Gospel parable reminds us that we are justified only by the grace of God. God’s gift of grace can take root in us only when we have the humility to acknowledge our need because of our sins.

The Pharisee is a very good person. He has obeyed all the laws of God. His efforts have even gone beyond the law; he fasts twice a week and pays tithes on his whole income. There is much about him that we might admire. But Jesus wants us to focus on his attitude. The man sees himself as better than the rest of people. He’s proud of his goodness.

The tax collector approaches God at a distance. He is very aware of his sinfulness, his need for God’s mercy. We’re told that his humble prayer pierces the clouds and reaches the heart of God. God does not delay in responding. The tax collector went home justified – at peace with God who reads the heart.

Honesty and humility are very basic foundations for developing a deeper relationship with God. No matter how good we strive to be in our daily living, our eternal salvation is always a gift of God’s saving grace and mercy. When it comes to pleasing God, we must learn never to become self-sufficient. We cannot earn salvation no matter how much good we do. We can only accept saving grace with great humility and respond thankfully by doing the good we are able to do each day.

Let us willingly acknowledge our need for God’s mercy each day. We can be confident that God will hear our humble prayer. Our merciful God will always lift us up and send us home justified.
