Thursday (Aug 29) The Passion of John the Baptist-Today is the Memorial of the Passion of St. John the Baptist. The Church, having celebrated the earthly birthday of St. John the Baptist on June 24, today honors the anniversary of his martyrdom. Besides our Lord and our Lady, St. John the Baptist is the only one whose birth and death are thus celebrated. Today's Gospel relates the circumstances of his execution. He had the courage to blame Herod to his face for the scandal of his illegal union with his sister-in-law Herodias, whose husband was still alive. Herodias contrived to make Herod imprison him and took advantage of an unexpected opportunity to obtain through her daughter Salome the beheading of the saint.

Sunday's Reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus urges us to remain faithful to Him and to live in the "spirit that gives life." St. Francis de Sales notes:

Our Savior came to recreate humanity. When we live in the Spirit of Jesus, we transcend our ordinary life in order to live a loftier life. We are so filled with divine love that we are like the stars whose light is totally absorbed in the sunlight. God lives in us, and our only desire is to unite our will to God's Will.

To progress in living in the Spirit of Jesus, we must first of all accept ourselves as being less than perfect. Don't lose heart, be patient, wait while joyously carrying out your daily activities. Do everything you are taught in a spirit of gentleness and fidelity. Develop a spirit of compassion. After we have planted and watered, we must realize that it is for God to give the increase to the trees that are our good inclinations and habits. For this reason, we must wait to obtain the fruits of our desires and labors from divine Providence.

If we are not progressing, as we desire, let us not be disturbed. In living a holy life our whole life is destined to be a practical testing. Let us remain at peace so that calmness always reigns in our hearts. It is up to us to cultivate our souls well, and we must faithfully attend to them. But as for a plentiful harvest, let us leave the care of that to our Lord. The laborer will never be blamed for not having a fine harvest unless he or she did not carefully till and sow his or her field. Our unwavering dependence on God assures us that we are solidly planted where God wants us to be.

I have no doubt that our Savior is holding you by the hand. If you stumble, it is only to let you know that if you let go of His hand you would fall rather than stumble. For those of us who love and hope in God, our weakness is not as great as God's mercy.

Reflexión Semanal

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos exhorta a permanecer fieles a Él y a vivir en el "espíritu que da vida". San Francisco de Sales señala:

Nuestro Salvador vino a recrear la humanidad. Cuando vivimos en el Espíritu de Jesús, trascendemos nuestra vida ordinaria para vivir una vida más elevada. Estamos tan llenos del amor divino que somos como las estrellas cuya luz es absorbida totalmente por la luz del sol. Dios vive en nosotros y nuestro único deseo es unir nuestra voluntad a la de Dios.

Para progresar en la vida en el Espíritu de Jesús, debemos aceptarnos ante todo como menos que perfectos. No desfallezcamos, seamos pacientes, esperemos mientras realizamos con alegría nuestras actividades diarias. Hagamos todo lo que se nos enseñe con un espíritu de mansedumbre y fidelidad. Desarrollemos un espíritu de compasión. Después de haber plantado y regado, debemos darnos cuenta de que es Dios quien debe dar el crecimiento a los árboles que son nuestras buenas inclinaciones y hábitos. Por eso, debemos esperar para obtener de la divina Providencia los frutos de nuestros deseos y trabajos.

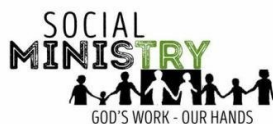

Si no estamos progresando como deseamos, no nos dejemos inquietar. En la santidad, toda nuestra vida está destinada a ser una prueba práctica. Permanezcamos en paz para que la calma reine siempre en nuestro corazón. De nosotros depende cultivar bien nuestra alma y debemos ocuparnos fielmente de ella. Pero en cuanto a la cosecha abundante, dejémosla en manos de nuestro Señor. Nunca se culpará al trabajador por no tener una buena cosecha, a menos que no haya cultivado y sembrado cuidadosamente su campo. Nuestra inquebrantable dependencia de Dios nos asegura que estamos sólidamente plantados donde Dios quiere que estemos.

No tengo ninguna duda de que nuestro Salvador te lleva de la mano. Si tropiezas, es solo para hacerte saber que si te sueltas de su mano, caerás en lugar de tropezar. Para los que amamos a Dios y esperamos en él, nuestra debilidad no es tan grande como la misericordia de Dios.

Celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Good Health at Holy Cross Church, Durham!

You are cordially invited to join the Indian Tamil Catholic community and the Holy Cross Catholic Church in Durham as we celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Good Health, Velankanni, on Saturday, September 14, 2024, starting at 9 am.

The day's festivities will commence with the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, the blessing and distribution of Holy Oil, and special prayers for healing. This will be followed by a Rosary procession, featuring a beautifully decorated 'Sapparam' carrying the blessed statue of Our Lady of Good Health. The highlight of the event will be the Feast Mass celebrated by the Most Reverend Luis Rafael Zarama, Bishop of Raleigh.

Following the Mass, a fellowship lunch featuring delicious Indian cuisine will be served. Register to join the fellowship lunch at <https://tinyurl.com/velankanni2024-lunch> .

This revered tradition honors the Blessed Virgin Mary, known as 'Arockia Madha' or 'Our Lady of Good Health.' Her legacy of miraculous healing and unwavering faith, which began centuries ago in a small fishing village called Velankanni in India, continues to inspire millions around the world.

Join us as we celebrate this remarkable story of faith and devotion. May the Blessed Virgin Mary intercede for us, grant us good health, and heal us. Our Lady of Good Health, Velankanni, pray for us! Amen.
