Sunday's Reflection

St. Francis de Sales, the “doctor of love,” had his own perspectives on judgment. Specifically, he cautioned against rash judgment. He observed: “Fear, ambition, and similar mental weaknesses often contribute to the birth of suspicion and rash judgment” when it comes to our perspectives of other people.

He continued: People “who have drunk in pride, envy, ambition, and hatred think that everything they see is evil and reprehensible. To be cured...I say, drink as deeply as you can of the sacred wine of charity. The sin of rash judgment is truly a spiritual jaundice that causes all things to appear evil to the eyes of those infected with it.”

Put another way, judgment is ultimately in the eye -- or the heart -- of the beholder. “If your reflections are kind,” remarked Francis, “your judgments will also be kind. If your affections are charitable, your judgments will be the same.”

Obviously, if our affections are neither kind nor charitable, our judgments of other people will be, at best, unkind and uncharitable. Such a practice is incompatible with anyone who is trying to be a “new creation” in Christ.

Unfortunately, we know from our own experience that it is all too easy to waste our time judging the motives and intentions of other people. If this weren't bad enough, we seldom keep such opinions to ourselves, but often share such judgments with third parties, leading to “uneasiness, contempt of neighbor, pride, self-satisfaction, and many other bad effects, chief among them being slander.”

Perhaps Francis de Sales really put his finger on the issue and summed it up when he wrote: “It is the mark of an unprofitable soul to amuse itself with examining the lives of other people.” The old ways of looking at other in terms of mere human judgment have passed away: what are we doing to keep it that way? Besides, on any given day, we probably have more than enough to do when it comes to examining our own lives, don't we? Why spin our wheels, then, by dissecting the lives of others for our own amusement...and to our own shame?

Reflexión Semanal

San Francisco de Sales, el “doctor del amor”, tenía sus propias perspectivas sobre el juicio. Específicamente, advirtió contra los juicios precipitados. Observó: “El miedo, la ambición y debilidades mentales similares a menudo contribuyen al nacimiento de sospechas y juicios precipitados” cuando se trata de nuestras perspectivas sobre otras personas.

Continuó: Las personas “que han bebido de orgullo, envidia, ambición y odio piensan que todo lo que ven es malo y reprensible. Para curarse... digo, bebed lo más que podáis del vino sagrado de la caridad. El pecado del juicio precipitado es verdaderamente una ictericia espiritual que hace que todas las cosas parezcan malas a los ojos de quienes están infectados con él”.

Dicho de otra manera, el juicio está en última instancia en los ojos –o en el corazón– de quien mira. “Si vuestras reflexiones son bondadosas”, observó Francisco, “tus juicios también lo serán. Si vuestros afectos son caritativos, vuestros juicios serán los mismos”.

Obviamente, si nuestros afectos no son amables ni caritativos, nuestros juicios sobre otras personas serán, en el mejor de los casos, crueles y poco caritativos. Semejante práctica es incompatible con cualquiera que pretenda ser una “nueva creación” en Cristo.

Desafortunadamente, sabemos por experiencia propia que es muy fácil perder el tiempo juzgando los motivos e intenciones de otras personas. Si esto no fuera suficientemente malo, rara vez nos guardamos esas opiniones para nosotros mismos, sino que a menudo compartimos esos juicios con terceros, lo que lleva a “inquietud, desprecio al prójimo, orgullo, autosatisfacción y muchos otros efectos negativos, siendo el principal de ellos calumnia.”

Quizás Francisco de Sales realmente puso el dedo en la llaga y lo resumió cuando escribió: “Es propio de un alma inútil divertirse examinando la vida de los demás”. Las viejas formas de mirar a los demás en términos de mero juicio humano han desaparecido: ¿qué estamos haciendo para que siga siendo así? Además, en un día cualquiera, probablemente tengamos más que suficiente que hacer cuando se trata de examinar nuestras propias vidas, ¿no es así? Entonces, ¿por qué hacer girar nuestras ruedas diseccionando las vidas de otros para nuestra propia diversión... y para nuestra propia vergüenza?

Social Ministry Did you know while nonperishable items collected are taken to the Lumberton Christian Care Center at the end of every month, (that's the amount I report on) not everything goes there. Throughout the month, occasionally families stop by the Church, and we prepare a box for them and their needs. Whatever we do not give out by the end of the month, we turn into Lumberton Christian Care Center, and that is the number I report in the Bulletin. I mention this because so far this month we have only collected 4 pounds of food. This is the first month we have had to direct families to other locations. We understand that It's summertime and many of us are traveling to see family, friends, our favorite vacations spots. Sometimes, just to get away for a little while. We pray that during your travels you stay safe and enjoy your time. We would, however, like you to keep in mind those less fortunate who truly rely on our Social Ministry Food Collection. If everyone gave just one small can of food, we could help a lot of people and make a big impact. ↔ ¿Sabía que si bien los artículos no perecederos recolectados se llevan al Lumberton Christian Care Center al final de cada mes (esa es la cantidad que informo), no todo va allí? A lo largo del mes, de vez en cuando las familias pasan por la Iglesia y preparamos una caja para ellos y sus necesidades. Todo lo que no entregamos antes de fin de mes, lo entregamos al Lumberton Christian Care Center, y ese es el número que informo en el Boletín. Menciono esto porque en lo que va del mes solo hemos recolectado 4 libras de comida. Este es el primer mes que hemos tenido que dirigir a las familias a otros lugares. Entendemos que es verano y muchos de nosotros viajamos para ver a familiares, amigos, nuestros lugares de vacaciones favoritos. A veces, simplemente para escaparme un rato. Oramos para que durante sus viajes se mantenga seguro y disfrute de su tiempo. Sin embargo, nos gustaría que tenga en cuenta a aquellos menos afortunados que realmente dependen de nuestra Colecta de Alimentos del Ministerio Social. Si todos dieran una sola lata pequeña de comida, podríamos ayudar a mucha gente y generar un gran impacto.
